

Prayer of the Faithful

32nd Sunday – Ordinary Time....A

Celebrant: ... In each of us there is a longing for happiness, which can only be satisfied in the kingdom of God. We now pray to the Father for the grace necessary to arrive there safely.

Reader: ... We pray for members of the armed forces who served their country and paid the ultimate price in War. We pray also for their families who remember them this day ... Lord, in your mercy.

Reader... *We pray for the Queen That God will continue to bless her and give her strength and health so that she may continue to inspire us by her commitment to service and her sense of duty.
Lord in your mercy..*

Reader... *For the Government and all in authority that they will be wise in the decisions and serve the common good of all our people.
Lord in your mercy....*

Rd. ... May we live in a state of readiness for the coming of God's kingdom into our lives, remaining watchful but never fearful Lord, in your mercy.

Rd. ... We pray for all who are searching for truth. May they be alert to the Lord calling them in the ordinary as well as in the special moments of their lives. . . . Lord, in your mercy.

Rd. ... May the Lord welcome into the banquet of eternal life our deceased relatives and friends especially for Pat, Mary Essandoh, Graeme Levell, Nesandaly, and Mary Butcher and all those whose names are on our November Dead List. . . Lord, in your mercy.

Celebrant: ... Heavenly Father, listen to the prayers we have made with sincere hearts. Help us to grow in holiness and goodness as we wait in joyful hope for the coming of your kingdom. Grant this through Christ our Lord.
