

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

33rd Sunday - Ordinary Time

Celebrant: ... God is our creator, the giver of life, the one who will judge every human being. Let us turn in prayer to this God who is our refuge and our hope.

Reader: ... We pray for the Church: may its members know the path of life and be led to the fullness of joy in God's presence. . . . Lord, hear us.

Reader: ... We pray our nation during this remembrance Sunday. Help us to get inspiration from those who committed their lives for our nation especially during the world wars. May God grant them eternal rest. . . . Lord, hear us.

Rd. ... We pray that all believers may prepare for the coming of Christ as judge by leading lives worthy of their Christian calling . . . . Lord, hear us.

Rd. ... We remember all who were affected by road accidents, we pray for those who died in this way, for those injured, for their family and relatives, and for safety on our roads. . . Lord, hear us

Rd. ... We pray for those who died during the world war. We also pray for their relatives and friends. May their bereaving families be strengthened by care and compassion of the Lord. . . Lord, hear us.

Rd. ... We pray for our relatives who have died, for all those whose names are on our November Dead List, and especially for Anne Kelly, Ouso Joseph, K C Thomas, Barbie Alexander, Mellisa Bonn, Pat Reynolds and Bert: may God bring them into his kingdom of light, happiness and peace. . . . Lord, hear us.

Celebrant: ... Lord, we thank you for the gift of life and for the opportunities you give us for doing good. May we always serve you faithfully, and when you come as judge may you welcome us into the kingdom where you live and reign forever and ever.
