POPE FRANCIS ON THE CALL TO HOLINESS

Jesus calls 'blessed' those who forgive and do so 'seventy times seven'. We need to think of ourselves as an army of the forgiven. All of us have been looked upon with divine compassion. Seeing and acting with mercy: that is holiness.

Ipswich Hospital: Ipswich Hospital Catholic Chaplaincy will now be covered by Fr. Bineesh Elenjikkal, assisted by Deacon Clive Brooks. Please be aware that for reasons of patient confidentiality, the current practice in the NHS is NOT to inform the chaplains of any Catholics that are admitted to hospital. So unless you or your relatives inform the chaplains of your hospital stay yourselves, you will not be visited by a priest or any other member of the chaplaincy team.

Fr. Paul and Fr Bineesh can be contacted on 07549 695648 or 01473 684963

SEA SUNDAY NEXT WEEK

11th July is Sea Sunday. It is the time that we remember all seafarers and fishers. 90% of everything we need for our everyday living comes by sea and without them, the supermarket shelves will be empty within a few days. They spend 9-12 months at a time at sea and today, because of the coronavirus, they are still confined to their vessels when they call at our ports. Stella Maris port chaplains support them even through the lockdown, but they can only do this with your generous support. Please remember seafarers, fishers and Stella Maris in your prayers and please support the work of Stella Maris by making a donation on Sea Sunday.

At the end of last week, one vessel had seafarers tested positive for Covid-19 and three seafarers were taken to Ipswich Hospital for treatment. The vessel is currently being deep cleaned and a fresh crew will be taking over before the vessel set off again. While nearly all of us have been fully vaccinated and restrictions being eased, seafarers are still not receiving their first vaccination and they are still 'imprisoned' on their vessels.
